

The Jews of the West Bank and Gaza and the Peace Process

Nov 1, 1997

In-Depth Reports

A demographic profile of Jews living in the West Bank and Gaza, written by the head of the Settlements Division at the World Zionist Organization. It examines the settlement policies of various Israeli administrations since 1967 as well as the motivations -- political and ideological -- of the settlers themselves. It also addresses the role of settlements in the peace process. Includes tables and graphs. ❖
