Articles & Testimony

Even if the regime's prospects of obtaining enough high-enriched uranium for a weapon have been greatly delayed, the potential repercussions do not end there.

Iran's centrifuge assembly plant at its main enrichment site of Natanz was destroyed last week, possibly with a bomb, according to some reports. What exactly occurred is the subject of much speculation. Many people believe that Israel is responsible for this incident and a series of other recent unexplained happenings in Iran. Officials in Tehran have said they know what happened but will announce it "later." Don't expect the truth...
