

Policy Analysis /

The Militia Assassination Surge (Part 1): Sabereen and Unit 10,000 Threaten Iraqi Forces

by Hamdi Malik, Michael Knights, Crispin Smith

Dec 10, 2021

Also available in العربية

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Hamdi Malik

Hamdi Malik is an Associate Fellow with the Washington Institute, specializing in Shia militias. He earned his doctorate at the school of social, political and global studies, Keele University. He is a co-founder of the Militia Spotlight platform, which offers in-depth analysis of developments related to the Iranian-backed militias in Iraq and Syria. He is the coauthor of the Institute's 2020 study "Honored, Not Contained: The Future of Iraq's Popular Mobilization Forces."

Michael Knights

Michael Knights is the Boston-based Jill and Jay Bernstein Fellow of The Washington Institute, specializing in the military and security affairs of Iraq, Iran, and the Persian Gulf states. He is a co-founder of the Militia Spotlight platform, which offers in-depth analysis of developments related to the Iranian-backed militias in Iraq and Syria.

Crispin Smith

Crispin Smith is an associate at a Washington-based national security law group. His research focuses on Iraqi security, human rights, and law of armed conflict issues. He is a co-founder of the Militia Spotlight platform, which offers in-depth analysis of developments related to the Iranian-backed militias in Iraq and Syria.

Brief AnalysisPart of a series: Militia Spotlightor see Part 1: How to Use Militia Spotlight

Both outlets are openly advocating the murder of Iraqi security forces at a time of escalated shootings and bombings.

On December 7, a motorcycle rigged with explosives killed four civilians in Basra. One day later, Prime Minister Mustafa al-Kadhimi visited the city and stated, "Yesterday's [attack] was an assassination attempt against an officer in Basra because he was...investigating the Death Squad"—the Iraqi government's term for Iran-backed militia hit squads that target a wide range of activists and media figures they deem harmful to their interests. Muqtada al-Sadr likewise attributed the motorcycle bomb to “uncontrolled militias who misuse weapons under the pretext of resistance.” The attack was just one of several efforts to assassinate or threaten Iraqi security forces (ISF) this week. Part 1 of this analysis covers the rhetorical angle of these efforts; Part 2 details the December 7 attack and the broader pattern of killings.

Sabereen News Threatens Iraqi Intelligence Personnel

The new surge of militia attacks against the ISF began after the post-election protests and riots outside the International Zone (IZ). On November 5, individuals affiliated with the muqawama (resistance) tried to storm the IZ, which contains the government center. Clashes between these individuals and ISF units protecting the IZ led to the death of at least one protestor. The next day, a post by militia outlet Sabereen News threatened to kill the ISF members who were protecting the IZ that day: “We will make you pay the price. We will take revenge on you, one by one. You will live the rest of your lives looking over your shoulders in fear, and we will take revenge on you in the time and place you do not expect. Remember very well the suicide in Zafaraniyah, the kick in al-Adel neighborhood, and the Toyota of al-Baladiyat” (Figure 1). The message was deleted a few hours later.

Figure 1: Sabereen News admits that muqawama militias have assassinated INIS officers, November 6, 2021.

The mention of "suicide in Zafaraniyah" refers to an alleged incident in which an officer working for the Iraqi National Intelligence Service (INIS) purportedly shot himself in his home in Baghdad's Zafaraniyah neighborhood on November 9, 2020. Sabereen was hinting that this death was an assassination.

The "kick in al-Adel neighborhood" refers to the assassination of senior INIS officer Mahmoud Laith Mohammed Hussein, who was killed on March 21, 2021. The assassin approached the victim from behind, kicked him to the ground, and shot him dead (Figure 2). The incident reportedly happened in al-Mansour neighborhood of Baghdad, which is very close to al-Adel neighborhood.

Finally, the Toyota mention refers to the June 7 assassination of senior INIS officer Nibras Farman in al-Baladiyat neighborhood of Baghdad. The assassins used two Toyota pickup trucks with tinted windows and no plate numbers (Figure 3).

As Militia Spotlight has previously reported, muqawama militias like Asaib Ahl al-Haq and Kataib Hezbollah (KH) view INIS as their principal adversary in Iraq. Accordingly, they have fired rockets at the agency's sites and assassinated its personnel in an attempt to punish and intimidate Prime Minister Kadhim, who doubles as the acting head of INIS.

Figure 2: CCTV footage showing the moment Mahmoud Laith Mohammed Hussein is shot dead, March 21, 2021.

Sabereen News and Unit 10,000 Expose Names of Security Personnel

Militia social media outlets also published the names of ISF members allegedly responsible for protecting the IZ on November 5. For example, Sabereen News threatened an intelligence officer involved in IZ security, putting his name in a post with the following sentence: "History will not be merciful. Prepare the gallows" (Figure 4). (The name was shown clearly in the original post, but Militia Spotlight has blurred it to protect his identity.)

Figure 3: CCTV footage showing one of the Toyota trucks involved in the assassination of Nibras Farman fleeing the crime scene, June 7, 2021.

Similarly, the KH-controlled outlet Unit 10,000 published the names of seventeen ISF members purportedly guarding the IZ. One such post named four ISF members responsible for Hummer vehicles on the scene (Figure 5) (Again, Militia Spotlight has blurred part of their names.)

Notably, Sabereen expressed disappointment with the lack of support from Iranian media organs during the November 5 riots, even though the channel itself is mostly funded by Iran. And the previous month, Sabereen called for the beheading of Iraqi civilians in a Telegram post that (like the November 5 post discussed above) was later taken down—though not quickly enough to avoid being preserved as evidence. These incidents suggest that all is not well within the channel, as its Iranian funders struggle to keep the muqawama "on message" and operating within legal and Iraqi nationalist boundaries.

Figure 4: Sabereen News threatens to hang a high-ranking ISF officer involved in IZ security, November 5, 2021.

by Iran. And the previous month, Sabereen called for the beheading of Iraqi civilians in a Telegram post that (like the November 5 post discussed above) was later taken down—though not quickly enough to avoid being preserved as evidence. These incidents suggest that all is not well within the channel, as its Iranian funders struggle to keep the muqawama "on message" and operating within legal and Iraqi nationalist boundaries.

Indeed, Sabereen News and anyone who incites premeditated

الوحدة 10000

الهمرات

١. حسام

٢. عمر

٣. اسماعيل

٤. مرتضى

Figure 5: Unit 10,000 publishes names of four ISF members involved in IZ security, November 6, 2021.

penalties and detention.

View/Print Page as PDF

SHARE

SHARE THIS

EMAIL ALERTS

Sign Up

TO TOP

PART OF A SERIES

Militia Spotlight

How to Use Militia Spotlight

murder of government officials may be liable as accessories to the crime. Under the Iraqi penal code, punishments for accessories to a crime can be the same as for the principal. Those who fail to notify authorities of an offense may also bear legal liability, including financial

The Muqawama's Lionization of Esmail Qaani: Consolidation or Covering Embarrassment?

Muhandis Replaced by Not One Man, But Two?

RECOMMENDED

BRIEF ANALYSIS

Recasting Syria's Cross-Border Aid Debate

Jan 21, 2022

Anna Borshchevskaya,
Andrew J. Tabler,
Calvin Wilder

BRIEF ANALYSIS

Iran's Increased Persecution of the Bahai

Jan 21, 2022

Mehdi Khalaji

BRIEF ANALYSIS

Qatar Poll Shows Public is Content, not Pro-Iran, A Third Accept some Israel Ties

Jan 20, 2022

David Pollock

TOPICS

Democracy & Reform

Military & Security

Shia Politics

Terrorism

REGIONS & COUNTRIES

Iraq

STAY UP TO DATE

SIGN UP FOR EMAIL ALERTS

THE
WASHINGTON INSTITUTE
for Near East Policy

1111 19th Street NW - Suite 500
Washington D.C. 20036
Tel: 202-452-0650
Fax: 202-223-5364

Contact
Press Room
Subscribe

The Washington Institute seeks to advance a balanced and realistic understanding of American interests in the Middle East and to promote the policies that secure them.

The Institute is a 501(c)3 organization; all donations are tax-deductible.

© 2022 All rights reserved.