

Not Final, but Forward: The Abraham Accords at a Crossroads

by Eric Alter \(/experts/eric-alter\), Nickolay Mladenov \(/experts/nickolay-mladenov\)

Nov 4, 2025

Also published in National Interest

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Eric Alter \(/experts/eric-alter\)

Eric Alter is the dean of the Anwar Gargash Diplomatic Academy in Abu Dhabi and a professor of international law and diplomacy.

Nickolay Mladenov \(/experts/nickolay-mladenov\)

Nickolay Mladenov is the Segal Distinguished Visiting Fellow at The Washington Institute. An accomplished Bulgarian politician and diplomat, he is the director-general of the UAE's Anwar Gargash Diplomatic Academy. He previously served as UN special coordinator for the Middle East peace process (2015-2020).

Articles & Testimony

The Gaza ceasefire is a chance to cement Israel's normalization with the rest of the Arab world, and perhaps reopen a path toward wider peace diplomacy with the Palestinians.

After Hamas's massacre of October 7 and two years of devastating war in Gaza, a US-brokered ceasefire has finally taken hold. Pushed by President Donald Trump, the truce, accompanied by hostage releases, aid surges, and phased Israeli withdrawals, offers more than a pause in fighting; it marks a potential turning point for the region. Related to its success lies a question first posed in 2020: can the Abraham Accords become not only a diplomatic milestone but also the foundation for durable peace? Once criticized as detached from the Palestinian issue, the accords are now proving unexpectedly relevant to it...

Read the full article on the National Interest website. \(https://nationalinterest.org/blog/middle-east-watch/not-final-but-forward-the-abraham-accords-at-a-crossroads\) ❖

RECOMMENDED

BRIEF ANALYSIS

Lebanon's Outlook on Sovereignty, Disarmament, and Peace

A Discussion with Foreign Minister Youssef Raggi

Dec 29, 2025

◆
Youssef Raggi

(/policy-analysis/lebanons-outlook-sovereignty-disarmament-and-peace-discussion-foreign-minister)

ARTICLES & TESTIMONY

Tunisia's Underdevelopment Problem

Dec 24, 2025

◆
Sabina Henneberg

(/policy-analysis/tunisiyas-underdevelopment-problem)

ARTICLES & TESTIMONY

Who Won the War?

Dec 28, 2025

◆
Robert Satloff

(/policy-analysis/who-won-war)

TOPICS

Arab-Israeli Relations (/policy-analysis/arab-israeli-relations)

Peace Process (/policy-analysis/peace-process)

REGIONS & COUNTRIES

Israel (/policy-analysis/israel)

Palestinians (/policy-analysis/palestinians)

