Articles & Testimony

Invoking the Magnitsky Act would send a clear signal that some actions are irreconcilable with global norms and Riyadh's own transformative vision.

President Trump may not believe in a rules-based international order, but we may now be seeing the consequences of the absence of global norms. The Russians have no qualms about poisoning a former agent in Britain. Lately the Chinese have felt free to disappear or detain some of their most prominent citizens—from an Interpol chief to a leading actress—by extralegal means. And now it appears the Saudis may have lured journalist and Post contributor Jamal Khashoggi to their consulate in Istanbul...
