Watch an in-depth conversation with two intimate observers of the Trump administration on new directions in American Middle East policy.

To assess the new U.S. administration's approach to Middle East policy at the conclusion of its first 100 days in office - and on the eve of a presidential trip to the region - The Washington Institute hosted a keynote conversation at its 2017 Soref Symposium on Middle East policy between Gen. John M. "Jack" Keane, USA (ret.), Adm. James G. Stavridis, USN (ret.), and Institute Executive Director Robert Satloff. <https://www.washingtoninstitute.org/policy-analysis/watch-an-in-depth-conversation-with-two-intimate-observers-of-the-trump-administration-on-new-directions-in-american-middle-east-policy> v=video
