

Turkey's Changing Landscape

Jun 9, 2008

Articles & Testimony

Modern Turkey's identity is based on its secular stance, but the ruling Justice and Development Party's policies show Islamist leanings. From mundane matters, such as the cost of ordering a drink, to major issues, such as women's role in society, Turkey seems to be undergoing a change. In this article, Soner Cagaptay considers the effects of these changes on the country's liberal values.
